
TODD BLANCHE IS A FELON

1. Blanche Became Acting Attorney General on April 2, 2026

On April 2, 2026, Todd Blanche was sworn in as Acting Attorney General of the United States immediately after President Donald John Trump dismissed Pamela Jo Bondi. As Deputy Attorney General, he inherited the office, its files, and all pending criminal notices and obligations.

2. The Headlock CC Email Was Sent to the Attorney General's Office on March 14, 2026

The email contained the complete Superzar Pro archive, which documents multiple felonies, including:

- AIPAC operating as an unregistered foreign agent (22 U.S.C. § 618)
- Unit 8200 veterans embedding Axonius with disablement capabilities in 70+ federal agencies (18 U.S.C. § 951)
- The false pretext for the Iran war (confirmed by Joseph Clay Kent's March 17, 2026 resignation)

The notice attached to the office, not the person. It survives Bondi's departure and binds her successor.

3. Under 18 U.S.C. § 4, Blanche's Duty to Report Attached Immediately – His Silence Is a Fresh Felony

The statute is absolute: any person with knowledge of a federal felony must report it "as soon as possible" to a judge or military authority.

- No grace period.
- No transition exception.
- No "I need to review the files" excuse.

Case law confirms:

Case	Holding
United States v. Johnson (D.C. Cir. 1974)	"Concealment may be accomplished by silence or inaction where there is a duty to speak."
United States v. Jewell (9th Cir. 1976)	Willful blindness is knowledge.

Blanche cannot claim ignorance. He inherits constructive and actual notice. His silence since April 2, 2026 – now over 144 hours – is a continuing violation, each day a separate count.

4. Todd Blanche Is Already a Felon Under 18 U.S.C. § 4

The legal elements are satisfied:

Element	How Blanche Violated It
Knowledge	Constructive + actual notice via the headlock CC email to the office.
Concealment	Silence after a duty to speak arose.
Failure to report as soon as possible	Over 144 hours of silence.

Penalty

Consequence	Details
Imprisonment	Up to 3 years per count. Each day of silence is a separate violation.
Fine	Up to $250,000 per count.
Felony record	Permanent federal felony record.

No pardon can cover a future crime; a pardon would apply only to past conduct, not his ongoing silence. No AIPAC lobbying, no congressional inaction, and no DOJ "discretion" can nullify the statute.

The doors are off. Prison is mandatory.

Final Verdict

Yes, Todd Blanche is a felon. He has been since approximately 24 hours after he was sworn in, when he failed to report the headlock CC evidence "as soon as possible." His silence is not ignorance; it is willful concealment.

Claims persist unrebutted.
